LET'S GET INTO THE REAL CHRISTMAS SPIRIT!

I can feel the tension, the anticipation and the excitement in the air as the Christmas holiday draws nearer. Everyone is talking about what kind of tree to get, what to get for whom, what to cook for the Christmas dinner, who to invite, etc.

But my friends --- let's not forget what Christmas is really about. Let's take some time to sit down and remember.

"Away in the manger, no crib for a bed,
The little Lord Jesus lay down His sweet head;
The stars in the sky looked down where He lay,
The little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay."

Who was to know that the precious little child would be laughed at, spit on, ridiculed, and killed?

It's during this joyous holiday season that some people get depressed, even to the brink of suicide. If they could only think about what this child had done for us...that His death meant life for us...how much He suffered and all because He loves US!

Yes, He loves us so much that He took upon Himself the sins of the world and carried that cross for us.

So this Christmas Season, let's stop to remember that precious and loving child who was born on that Christmas Day. Most of all, don't despair, but look UP and rejoice! BE HAPPY for the greatest gift of all --- the child born and life eternal.

New President

Keith Black Hair is the new President of Student Senate.

From the elementary school:

The annual Christmas program will be presented at 2:30 on Wednesday, December 16 in the small gym. All parents and friends of TJ Elementary are cordially invited to attend. The title of the program is "Angels, Lambs, Butterflies and Fireflies".

The winners of the Reading is FUNdamental poster contest held at TJ recently are:

1st - Michael Alcott

2nd - Heather Bearstail

3rd - Kristi Belgarde

Congratulations!!

A big thanks to Anne Kuyper, Woodson Faraway, and Mike Hahn. for judging this years RIF (Reading Is Fundamental) poster contest. Michael's poster will be sent to Washington, D.C. for further judging and we all wish him the best of luck. Woodson has volunteered to help Michael work on the poster giving him suggestions and encouragement. Thanks Woodson!

BOOK IT! correction: Kristy Belgarde, grade 4, and Chris Halsey, grade 6, made their reading goal for the month of November also. These did not appear in last week's Newsletter.

Chapter I Reading Students:

Toni Eagleshied and Ferlin Dorian, who are first graders, asked 27 students and staff at the elementary school, "Do you believe in Santa Claus?"

Helping Toni and Ferlin count the answers was Robert DeMarrias. They counted 20 yes...I believe in Santa Claus.

5 students who don't believe in Santa Claus

one who doesn't know and another student who guesses so.

More students and staff believe in Santa Claus

MERRY CHRISTMAS...SANTA CLAUS

The students and staff of TJ elementary wish all of you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Confusious say:

Man who spends more time worrying about other people's work, less productive on own work.

In other words concentrate on you own job and all will run smooth.
