TO DO THE UNEXPECTED

I WILL TRY TO DO THE UNEXPECTED
TODAY,
IN A SELF-FULFILLING WAY.

IF I'M ANGERED
I'LL TRY NOT TO RESPOND... WITH ANGER.

IF I'M DISCOURAGED
I'LL TRY A LITTLE HARDER INSTEAD OF GIVING UP.

IF I'M HURT BY WORDS
I'LL TRY TO UNDERSTAND WHY THE WORDS WERE SAID.

IF I'M LONELY
I'LL TRY TO HELP SOMEONE ELSE BE LESS LONELY.

IF I'M FEELING LOW
I'LL TRY TO PICK MY SPIRITS UP
AND NOT GIVE IN TO THE LOW.

IF I'M HAPPY
I'LL SHARE MY HAPPINESS.

IF I FEEL FAILURE
I'LL TRY HARDER TO SUCCEED.

IF I HAVE MUCH
I'LL SHARE WITH THOSE WHO HAVE LESS.

TODAY IS MY DAY
TO TRY TO ACT IN AN UNEXPECTED WAY.

During the week of September 5-9th, Theodore Jamerson Elementary School sponsored the "LITTLE MISS TINY BUD" Pageant. Little Miss Tiny Bud then respresented T.J.E.S. at the United Tribes 19th Annual International Pow Wow.

Candidates who were eligible for the Pageant were girls from grades K-8; requirements for eligibility were dancing skill, a dancing outfit, and poise.

Six girls participated in the run off; they were: Kindergarten: RESA LONG TREE; Grade 1: JADE ROBERTSON and RANDI CADOTTE; Grade 3: URSULA RED BIRD; Grade 4: LINDA GREAVES; Grade 7: MERANDA MARCELLAIS.

MERANDA MARCELLAIS was chosen "LITTLE MISS TINY BUD" and RANDI CADOTTE was Alternate.

Theodore Jamerson Elementary School entered two floats in the Miss Indian America Parade. It was widely felt by UTTC staff, adult students, and the students of TJES that the elementary school's involvement in the Pow Wow and Parade was a good idea. . .one worth repeating in the years to come.

STUDENT PICTURES will be taken and student I.D.'s made ON THURSDAYS ONLY at 3:00 P.M. Pictures are taken in the Counseling Area in the Education Building. Please contact Joey or Jackie. THANKS!

ALL STUDENTS NEEDING A G.E.D. should contact English Instructor Bev Huber in the Learning Center or at Ext. 294 in the Education Building AS SOON AS POSSIBLE!

The United Tribes Technical College campus has a chapel for worship services; the chapel is just south of the Education Building, in Building #64. Chaplain for UTTC is the Rev. Mr. Edward Johnson. Any student wishing to make appointments with Mr. Johnson may call his extension on campus. That EXTENSION # is 204. His office is located in the Administration Building. You may also make an appointment to meet with him at the chapel.

At the present time, Catholic Mass is held at the Chapel every Sunday at 10:00 A.M. Celebrant of the Mass is Father Victor Feser.

Plans are also underway for setting up a schedule for interdenominational use of the chapel.

SPECIAL THANKS to Sarah Solis, carpentry student, for making the "mailbox" for NEWSLETTER readers and contributors to drop articles and other material when Mary is away from her area. The "mailbox" or "dropbox" is right on the wall. Leave your contributions in the slot and Mary will pick them up. REMEMBER! All material to the NEWSLETTER must be in on Wednesdays, at 4:30 P.M. The UTTC NEWSLETTER comes out on Fridays.
