NEWSLETTER

VOL. 11. NO. 20.

DATE: JANUARY 30, 1989

YESTERDAY....TOMORROW....TODAY!

from Spiritan Arts

There are two days we should not worry about.

YESTERDAY, with its mistakes and heartaches....yesterday is gone forever.

TOMORROW is the other day. It has problems and possibilities. But until the sun rises, it is unborn and unreal.

TODAY is the only day left.
Anyone can fight a battle for JUST ONE DAY!

Only when we add the burdens of those other two days are we likely to fail.

TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA!!!!

Lois Lane is pleased to report that last week's NEWSLETTER TRIVIA was very successful. There was a BIG response to the "movie question" and the answers came in "thick 'n fast"! KELLIE CAMERSON came to Lois' office with the answer and as she was leaving, a trio of guys came in shouting, "THE ACCIDENTAL TOURIST! THE ACCIDENTAL TOURIST!!" in a chorus! Gee, guys, you'd make a great back-up for Gladys Knight! The "Trio" was DAVID LOOKING ELK, VERN SEARS, and PETER FEATHER. And, of course, they were right! As "The Trio" turned on their heels and left, DEAN GOODIRON called Lois' EXTENSION with the right answer. No sooner had Lois hung up the phone, when BEV DAVI, a staff member from the Student Health Center called with the answer. Lois' hand was still on the phone when it rang AGAIN---this time, the winner was VERNA KOCH. And, yes, all this happened within the first FIVE MINUTES the NEWSLETTER was out! After that last call, there was a gap in the responses, so Lois calls those the winners. Calls continued to come in periodically after that initial flurry and the answers were right, but the winners had already been decided.

This week's TRIVIA QUESTION is on the Super Bowl. You must have all parts of the question answered correctly. Here is the question: 1. What team has gone to the Super Bowl THREE TIMES in the past ten years? 2. In what years did that team go to the Super Bowl? 3. What teams did that team play in those years? 4. In what cities were those Super Bowls held? 5. Who were the MVP's each of those years?

Anyone on campus can play NEWSLETTER TRIVIA. The winners receive a 6-pack of Coca-Cola. Winners are ineligible to play the game for four weeks after winning.

GOOD LUCK!!! CALL IN!!! Lois is waiting by the phone!

"ARE YOU A GOOD CO-WORKER?"

(Or....."ARE YOU A GOOD FELLOW STUDENT?")

The Test Will Tell

By Jane Sherrod Singer
From THE DENVER POST

"Some statistician....made the startling statement that one-quarter of most people's lives is spent in the company of persons not of their choosing but thrown together by business or work reasons.

Employers usually pick their employees on the basis of their abilities rather than their adaptability to their fellow workers.

This test is not designed to determine how you rate in the eyes of your SUPERIORS, but whether or not you are a good colleague. Circle your answers.

1. Have you often borrowed from others with whom you work (or go to school)(Money, cosmetics, sports equipment, office supplies, car, etc.)? YES NO
2. Do you belong to a CLOSED clique of employees (or students)? YES NO
3. Is it difficult for you to keep a secret? YES NO
4. Do you often complain that you have too much work? YES NO
5. Do you discuss your personal problems at work (or school)? YES NO
6. Do your co-workers (or fellow students) discuss their personal problems with you?
YES NO
7. Do you feel it is your duty to report errors or infractions of rules to your superiors? YES NO

8. Do you secretly feel you deserve a better job than you now hold? YES NO
9. While on the job, do you enjoy innocent flirtations? YES NO
10. Do you always try to dress better than your co-workers? YES NO
11. When you think no one will know, do you leave the job (or classes) early?
YES NO
12. Do you consistently try to put out more work than any of your co-workers?
YES NO
13. Do you frequently use work time to write personal letters, make personal calls, or do personal work? YES NO
14. Do you feel that smiles and a sense of humor should be reserved for non-working,
(or non-school) hours? YES NO
15. Are you hesitant to share the work if a co-worker is absent or ill? YES NO

SCORING: Give yourself two points for each "no" answer. Be honest, now!

22-30 Points: Your co-workers appreciate your presence and your advice. If you were to leave, they would very likely take up a collection to buy a present, and many would try to keep in touch with you. They would be pleased to see you given a higher salary or a better job. Your sensitivity, self-discipline, and common sense should make working relations easy for you.

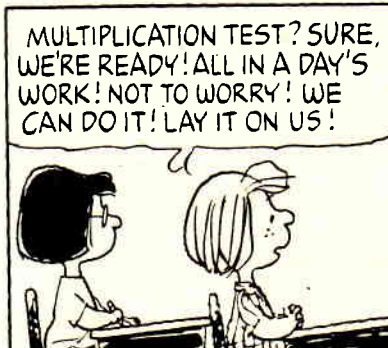

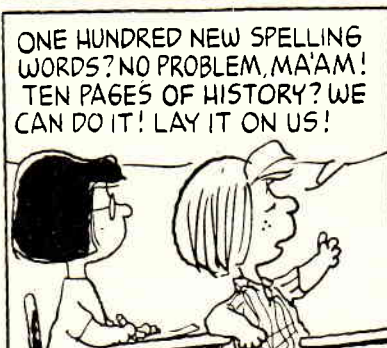

12-20 Points: You seem to be an average employee with ordinary strengths and weaknesses as far as your conduct with other people goes. There are some who like you very much, others who may distrust you. Perhaps a less self-centered attitude is the answer for you.

0-10 Points: Whether you know it or not, you are walking alone. Those with whom you work (or go to school) may be pleasant, but they are likely to be uneasy with you. Look into your own personality, for everyone wants to be accepted and admired. You can be...if you try to see yourself through the eyes of others.
