TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA!

Yes! Yes!! I KNOW that in the issue last week that I said there would be NO MORE TRIVIA until next year, but one of the staff --- RON NEWMAN, from Maintenance, talked me into putting in another contest for this week...he said the contest should go "RIGHT TO THE END"! I agree with him! RON also suggested the questions for this week's Trivia Game. You must, of course, have all three parts of the question correct in order to win the 6-pack of Coke (and, "NO, RON, YOU CAN'T PLAY THE GAME THIS WEEK!!!") The Trivia Question is: 1. In what year did United Tribes Technical College come into existence? 2. In what year did United Tribes Educational Technical Center come into existence? 3. Who was the first president of United Tribes, when the school first began?

RON WAS RIGHT! The school year should end with a Trivia Question about Tribes' history. Lois Lane will be waiting by her phone for your answer. Please call EXT. 227.

The winner of last week's Trivia Game about the Presidents of the United States who have come to Bismarck was won by BERNADINE RED BOW. Congrats, Bernadine!

The UTTC NEWSLETTER would like to take this opportunity to recognize the very considerate actions of Printer, TERRY LEWIS, for his part in the discovery and subsequent hospitalization of an injured bicyclist; chances are, without Terry's intervention and help, the injured party would have not received treatment for her injuries in time for her to recover completely. Here's the story: about three weeks ago, Terry and his son were walking on the bicycle/jogging trail that skirts the Bismarck Zoo and Riverwood Golf Course. When they descended to the tunnel that goes under Bismarck Expressway, they discovered a bicyclist lying in a pool of her blood from a head injury sustained when she'd fallen from her bike. Terry flagged down two passing motorists, who called an ambulance, and the lady was taken to the hospital. When Terry and his son had found the bicyclist, she was unconscious. An interesting sidelight to this story is that when Terry called the hospital to find out how the lady was, he was told she is developmentally disabled and cannot hear or speak.

The Administration, Faculty, and Staff and United Tribes would like to acknowledge Terry's "Good Samaritanism"....we all think what you did was just one of many indications of what a nice person you are! It's good to know that people like Terry live in Bismarck, and that they will come to the aid of someone who needs help and who cannot get it for himself/herself.

It has also come to the attention of the "Roving Reporter" that one of the students of Theodore Jamerson Elementary School recently performed an act of heroism that should be recognized. However, the young lady is quite bashful about her part in her Good Samaritan activities, so the NEWSLETTER will wait until the first issue of the academic year 1989-1990 of the NEWSLETTER to acknowledge her heroism....perhaps by then she will give the "Roving Reporter" the whole scoop!

ALL THIS "JUST GOES TO SHOW" THAT THERE ARE SOME VERY, VERY EXCEPTIONAL PEOPLE WORKING AT AND ATTENDING UNITED TRIBES TECHNICAL COLLEGE AND THEODOR JAMERSON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL!!! The people of a place are what make it what it is. And what we have at United Tribes is a community of good people!

In the May 1, 1989 issue of the NEWSLETTER, a picture of three of the drummers who were part of the program welcoming President Bush was inaccurately labeled: "BUTCH THUNDERHAWK, LEROI LAUNDREAUX, AND JOHN STANDING BEAR". Lois Lane must have been having a particularly bad day when she typed the caption for THAT picture, because the drummers pictured were actually: BUTCH THUNDERHAWK, LEROI LAUNDREAUX, AND JOE MANY BEARS. . . .Lois got her "Bears" mixed up!!!

Please accept my apology, Joe! You're right....I did have you in class for a whole year, and there's "no excuse"! Thanks for having a good sense of humor about the mistake!

On May 5, 1989, THEODORE JAMERSON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL had its Graduation/Awards Day Program and Luncheon in the UTTC Cafeteria at 10:00 AM.
