NEWSLETTER

VOL. 12. NO. 15.

DATE: DECEMBER 11, 1989

To all the readers of the UTTC NEWSLETTER, may you have a Blessed Christmas!

PRAYER

GITCHE MANITO -- GRANDFATHER,

Help me to listen to my parents,
my children, my family, and friends
Help me to be as kind and patient with them as I want them to be with me.

Help me to be a person whose actions show that honesty does create respect and happiness in relationships.

Help me to diminish the anger,
meanness, impatience, and arrogance within me, for though the world is not always fair, I diminish myself by allowing any of these to control my behavior.

Help me to set my loved ones free that they may be themselves, and give me the strength to remind them that I also must be myself.

Help me to be a person of courage that I may deny myself weaknesses that I know are harmful to me and to others.

Help me to be fair, just, honest, kind,
and respectful, for though not everyone will love me, all will see within me a reflection of Your Spirit if I am an honorable person.

To: DIANE SCHROEDER, whose name was inadvertently left off the Honor Roll when the President's and Vice-Presidents' Lists were printed by the NEWSLETTER
WE'RE SORRY!

To: GREG HOLY BULL - your gal made the PRESIDENT'S LIST!

ITEMS OF INTEREST FOR THE "SHOP 'TIL YOU DROP" SET!!!

"HEAR YE, HEAR YE!" The UTTC Cultural Center/College Bookstore is now stocking a variety of current monthly and weekly magazines, SO WHY GO INTO TOWN to buy your favorite slick pages? We have everything for the well-read student and staff person right here on campus! Stop in and visit the Cultural Center... you'll see Life, Sports Illustrated, Western Horseman, Star (Yes! even Star, so you can keep current with all the gossip about the celebs!)...Is there a magazine you don't see that you'd like to? Just let Butch Thuderkaw know, and he'll order what you want! Patronize your on-campus retailer!

AND FOR THOSE OF YOU DOING YOUR LAST-MINUTE SOUL-SEARCHING ABOUT WHAT TO GET TO UNCLE HARRY OR AUNTIE BERNICE, how about a glossy, color print of North Dakota's own World Light-Heavyweight Champion, Virgil Hill? Uncle Harry would like one of those ring-side candid shots! (Or maybe Auntie Bernice wouldn't mind one either!?) Lois Lane has a good selection of prints taken of Virgil within the past three years. If you bought them anywhere else, you'd pay a lot more! Call EXT. 227...or stop by and look at the selection! It doesn't cost anything to look!

Do you have a Clint Eastwood fan on your Christmas shopping list? Lois also has pictures and other memorabilia of Eastwood from the past 20 years. Some of the pictures were taken by Lois herself! (Don't be so surprised! Lois has connections! Non-believers can stop by Lois's office in the catacombs of the Education Building and SEE FOR YOURSELVES!)

FOR SALE: Two small, hand-held vacuum cleaners; ideal for cleaning out cars or for hard-to-reach areas in the home or classroom. One is a Singer brand, $15.00; the other is a year-old Black and Decker Shop Vac, $30.00. Call EXT. 227.

HOLIDAY COOKIES FOR SALE: Variety assortments; 5 dozen for $10.00. Call EXT. 311 and ask for Rose. Order now for the holidays!

ANYONE INTERESTED IN THE NEW CURTIS MATHIS COLOR TV AND VCR advertised last week in the NEWSLETTER should contact Joe at EXT. 279.

TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA!

Last week's difficult Trivia Question, in two parts, was answered by the Godfather of Trivia himself, MILO CHASE, and by DANIEL TAKES GUN. Congrats, Winners!

This week's Trivia Question is "Christmas-ey", in honor of the Season, and it's in three parts; you must have all three parts correct in order to win a 6-pack of Coke. The question is: 1. According to the Bible, what were the three visitors from the East, (who came to see the Christ Child) called? 2. What were the gifts that they brought to the Child? 3. How did they find Jesus -- in fact, what was it that they saw that motivated them to search for Jesus the Messiah?

If you have the answer, call Lois Lane at EXT. 227.

IN THE UTTC NEWSLETTER SPOTLIGHT
*****

Featured in this week's UTTC NEWSLETTER SPOTLIGHT is ANN KRAFT, the Secretary for Bennett Yellow Bird, Vice-President for Academic Affairs.

Ann grew up in the Shields, North Dakota area. She graduated from high school at Ft. Yates, N. D. and attended business college in Bismarck.

In 1974, Ann started working at United Tribes as the secretary to the Child Day Care Supervisor; in the years that Ann has been at the school, she's held several secretarial positions, including secretary to Dr. Jim Davis and to Mary Baker, past administrators of United Tribes.

Ann enjoys working with various arts and crafts, including crocheting and plastic canvas work.

Those who know Ann know that "secretary" is a word that falls far short of describing all that Ann does in a day's time. The thought of all that she does in a MONTH'S time is enough to make strong men faint! Have you ever been at the Skill Center to watch Ann, fielding questions, answering the telephone (that rings every 3 seconds!), typing everything from Purchase Requisitions to grant proposals, running the copying machine, making coffee, sending messages over the intercom to teachers in their areas, greeting visitors to the college, and keeping every organizational detail of the functioning of the college straight ALL AT THE SAME TIME? It is common knowledge that if you're in a bind because you don't know something, ANN KRAFT KNOWS! Ann is one of the most effecient people on earth. Ann Kraft--Secretary--? No! Ann Kraft, WONDER WOMAN!

from the typing,
answering, organizing,
and trouble-shooting.
