VOL. 12. NO. 22.

DATE: FEBRUARY 19, 1990

I saw him standing by the road.
He stood so tall,
Yet he stooped so low.
I picked him up; there was pain in his eyes.
"Take me home," he seemed to sigh.
Now the sorrow in his voice left me with no other choice.

And I could tell by the way he shyly said,
"Where he was going, I had already been."
I wanted to tell him about Jesus, before the pain consumed his soul.

He was like a flower bent by the breeze
Growing near the highway---the one you never see.
Like living in a shallow, dry creek bed,
He came from the reservation; said he, "Ain't never goin' back!"

Where will he go?
Who will he know?
What will he do?
It's up to me and you.
It's up to me and you!

TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA!

Last week's Trivia Question on American Indian Literature was won by BRIAN PALECEK, CINDY DECOTEAU, and "The Team of JUDY AZURE and JOEY MCLLOUD....all staff members.....and by DIANE SCHROEDER and "SQUAW" RAINBOW.....both students. "GOOD SHOW, WINNERS!"

This week's Trivia Question is on Black American Literature; you must have all FOUR parts of the question correct in order to win a 6-pack of Coke: 1. In the mid-1970's, a Black American writer won a Pulitzer Prize for his history of a family descended from an African man named "Kunte-Kinte"; what was this American writer's name? 2. What was the name of this award-winning book? 3. What production followed the release of the book? 4. What was the author's relationship with "Kunte-Kinte"?

Lois Lane is waiting by the phone; call EXT. 227 with your answer! And while Lois is waiting for your calls, she wants to say that she forgot to give credit to two winners of past Trivia Games who were not acknowledged in the NEWSLETTER! Those two winners were JESS CLAIRMONT and VERZELLA CADOTTE. PLEASE FORGIVE THE OVERSIGHT, JESS AND VERZELLA!

DID YOU KNOW that one of the most stressful experiences that every adult American undergoes, on a par with SPEAKING IN PUBLIC and a SUDDEN SURPRISE VISIT FROM ONE'S IN-LAWS, is PREPARING ONE'S FEDERAL AND STATE INCOME TAXES EVERY YEAR? This year, minimize your stress level during tax time.....have ANDERSON TAX SERVICE help you prepare your returns! Anderson Tax Service offers 20 years of experience, a computerized system for professional results, and expert assistance.

Call 222-0800 after 6:30 PM weekdays or afternoons on weekends. Anderson Tax Service is a good alternative to running away from home the night before April 15th.
