TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA!

There were four winners of the NEWSLETTER Trivia Contest last week; the staff winners were: ANNE KUYPER and CHARLEEN LASCHKEWITCH....student winners were: CARLA STEAD and DOUG RUNS THROUGH. Congrats, WINNERS!

This week's Trivia Question is on Sports Statistics; you must win all three parts of the question in order to win the contest: 1. In 1987, Magic Johnson became the ninth player in history to surpass what statistical milestone--20,000 points? 6,000 assists? 1,000 steals? or 14,000 rebounds? 2. How did Sugar Ray Leonard's defeat of Marvelous Marvin Hagler end-- Unanimous decision? Split decision? TKO? or KO? 3. What team won the 1987 NCAA hockey title--Michigan State? North Dakota? Harvard? North Dakota State?

Call Lois Lane at EXT. 227, with your answer. You are warned in advance that if you miss the third part of the question, your name will be given to Pam Carlascio's Uncle Nickie the Knife in Chicago!
