 IN THE "NEWSLETTER SPOTLIGHT"

"In the NEWSLETTER Spotlight" is a feature that focuses upon the students, former students, and administrators, instructors, and staff of United Tribes Technical College.

The NEWSLETTER is pleased to feature the staff of the UTTC Nursery in this issue. The staff are listed alphabetically. The information was provided by SANDY POITRA-CONLEY, The UTTC Nursery Supervisor.

1. ALANNA TOOTOOSIE-BAKER is a 1984 high school graduate who received her Bachelor of Science in Indian Social Work from the University of Regina in 1989. Alanna has experience in counseling on both elementary and secondary levels.

Alanna is a Cree from the Poundmaker Reserve, Saskatchewan, Canada. Her hobbies and personal interests are travelling, going to pow wows, dancing, and sewing.

2. MERLE F. BEARSTAIL graduated from the Fort Berthold Community College in L.P.N. Nursing training and has worked for the Indian Health Service as a Community Health Nurse in New Town, North Dakota. At the UTTC Student Health Service, she was an LPN on duty. Merle is currently attending the University of Mary, majoring in Special Education and Elementary Education. She is a Junior at the University.

Merle's tribal affiliation is Devils Lake Sioux Tribe on the Fort Totten Indian Reservation.

This versatile lady's main hobby is sewing.

3. PATRICIA L. ELK is an Assinaboine Sioux from Standing Rock. She received much of her education in Fargo, North Dakota (up to her Junior year), and she's had experience in working for day care centers. She was employed at the Nokomis Day Care Center and the H. R. A. Day Care Center before coming to United Tribes.

Pat loves children a lot, and her goal is to have her own day care in her home. Pat's hobbies are sewing and beading.

4. BIRDENA J. FOX is an Arikara from the Ft. Berthold Agency.

Before she came to UTTC, Birdi attended the Interstate Business College in Bismarck. When she was asked about her hobbies, Birdi said she likes to do beadwork.

5. ELLA MANY BEARS is also an Arikara from Ft. Berthold, but she has some Sioux heritage too.

Ella is a graduate of the United Tribes Medical Records Program; she has been employed at the UTTC Nursery since her graduation in 1987.

Besides doing things with her four girls, Ella likes going to pow wows and doing beadwork.

6. SANDI POITRA-CONLEY is from the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa (Metis) from the Turtle Mt. Reservation in Belcourt, North Dakota.

Sandi has a degree in Early Childhood Development from Mayville State and a degree in Fashion Merchandising from the University of Minnesota. She has four years of experience working in retail merchandising and three years as Supervisor of the UTTC Nursery.

Sandi loves to design and make clothing, and one of her interests has been the coordination of fashion shows. She loves to travel and she's had the opportunity to do that as a dancer and performer at cultural/ethnic festivals throughout the country. She has been to Washington D.C. promoting cross-cultural exchanges as a Metis artist/dancer. In her quiet moments, Sandi likes to do beadwork, read, walk and run, and to enjoy animals, especially cats and horses.

7. TERESA SLEZAK called Fourth Avenue in Mandan "The Ole Homestead" until recently, when she moved to Bismarck.

Teresa has been one of the Day Care ladies for SEVEN YEARS NOW! Before she came to UTTC, she worked at Penny's; she also did babysitting (she loves kids!), and she was a private home care aide for a while too.

Her interests are many: she likes to bowl, garden, read, bake, and help the elderly. She loves taking care of her grandchildren...and she loves "good conversation".

8. SHIRLEY VANDALL is from Ft. Berthold, North Dakota; her tribal affiliation is Chippewa and Hidatsa.

Like Ella Many Bears, Shirley is a graduate of United Tribes; she graduated from the Business Clerical Vocation in 1985. Before she attended UTTC, she went to the University of North Dakota in Grand Forks from 1982-83.

Shirley likes listening to music, sewing quilts, reading, and TRAVELLING!

United Tribes Technical College is very proud of these dedicated staff members, who care for the children of UTTC!!

INSTRUCTORS DICK DIONNE AND KATHLEEN HEWSON ARE PROUD TO ANNOUNCE THAT THE UNITED TRIBES TECHNICAL COLLEGE "POLICE SCIENCE" VOCATION HAS BECOME, AS OF APRIL 20, 1990, THE "CRIMINAL JUSTICE DEPARTMENT". IN MAKING THIS NAME CHANGE, THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE DEPARTMENT OF UNITED TRIBES TECHNICAL COLLEGE IS NOW "IN LINE WITH" OTHER COMMUNITY AND JUNIOR COLLEGES WHO USE THE "CRIMINAL JUSTICE" DEFINITION TO DESCRIBE THE TRAINING OF LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS. THIS ACADEMIC CATEGORIZATION IS A "STEP UP". FOR THE STUDENTS WHO ARE CURRENTLY ENROLLED IN THE PROGRAM AND FOR NEW STUDENTS COMING INTO IT.
