MAN-SIZED

By TOM STROMME of the Tribune

Andrew Big Eagle, 20 months, picked out the pumpkin he wanted for Halloween on Friday afternoon. The big pumpkins were growing in a pumpkin patch at the United Tribes Technical College and are destined to be jack o'lanterns at various college buildings, said one of the proud pumpkin gardeners. Andrew is the son of Clayton and Bonnie Big Eagle of Bismarck. Weekend weather calls for cool temperatures and the first frost warnings of the fall.

The above picture and caption were printed by THE BISMARCK TRIBUNE on the FRONT PAGE! The picture appeared on September 22, 1990 and is re-printed with permission from the TRIBUNE. These "monster pumpkins" were the products of the summer gardening of more than one teacher at UTTC; these ladies had summer gardens on campus and were too modest to have their names appear in the TRIBUNE (HINT: two of the ladies are named ANNE KUYPER and SHERRI SNYDER)!

Lois Lane is happy to announce that there were two Staff Winners of last week's Trivia Question; the winners were Dennis Rennville and Don Cadotte. Unfortunately, there were no Student Winners.....and the Mystery Prize is STILL A MYSTERY!

This week's Trivia Question is about North Dakota history, and anyone who has been to the North Dakota State Capitol Building and seen the pictures hanging there of famous North Dakotans will know the answer to it: WHAT WAS THE NAME OF THE JUDGE (A NATIVE NORTH DAKOTAN) WHO WILL GO DOWN IN HISTORY AS BEING THE MAN WHO MADE THE REVOLUTIONARY DECISION (LEGAL) THAT ENDED SEGREGATION IN THE SCHOOLS IN THE UNITED STATES?

If you have the answer, call Lois at EXT. 227. She will be waiting....with your MYSTERY PRIZE IN HAND!

The OPEN HOUSE at T.J.E.S. was a great success due to the tremendous turnout of parents and relatives of the students (many friends from on-campus came too!). The Open House was held during the week of October 1-5, 1990.
