"IN THE NEWSLETTER SPOTLIGHT"

Last week's "IN THE NEWSLETTER SPOTLIGHT" column featured RED KOCH, a long-time UTTC employee in the Transportation area; the article contained a mistake---A BIG MISTAKE---but one that was unintentional. The NEWSLETTER Editor apologizes to Red and his family for the mistake, and that article is re-printed WITH THE APPROPRIATE CORRECTION as follows:

Red has been an employee of United Tribes for a total of seventeen years, but those years have not been accumulated consecutively. He is the father of three sons---Monte, who is 19, Jay, who is 16, and Jody, who is 13. Monte attends Little Big Horn College, Crow Agency, Jay goes to Bismarck High, and Jody attends Jeanette Meyre School in Bismarck.

Red is the husband of VERNA WHITE CLAY KOCH, who is also a long-time employee of UTTC. Verna works in the Supply area of UTTC.

People who know Red know that he has a great sense of humor, and that his "pet peeve" is "people who claim rights but not responsibility". The NEWSLETTER would also like to acknowledge the fact that both Red and Verna are also very forgiving and generous people, and these qualities are much appreciated by everyone who knows them (ESPECIALLY the Editor!)

ROLAND YOUNG, also of Transportation, is being featured in this week's NEWSLETTER. ROLAND has been at UTTC since April 1, of 1985, as a bus driver and mechanic. His wife, RITA YOUNG, began working at UTTC on August 22, 1984; she's employed at the Cafeteria. Rita and Roland were Married on January 8, 1980. They have four boys and one girl.

Roland likes to play jokes on people, SO WATCH OUT! Roland is pictured below.

WHO IS THAT GREAT PUMPKIN GROWER!?? Thank you, ANNE KUYPER, for the flowers, planting, pruning, watering, and so on that you did this summer! UTTC looks much nicer for all your work!

You can use the computer, check out books, games and other learning activities for your children, etc. Mrs. Frey will be there to assist you. Hope to see you there!

Last week's Trivia Contest was won by RED KOCH and RON NEWMAN, both staff members who knew that LOUIS L'AMOUR was the native North Dakotan born in Jamestown. Besides the 30 stories Louis L'Amour sold to the movies, he also wrote over 400 short stories and 100 novels. L'Amour's books have been translated into ten languages. In addition to his prose, he also wrote a volume of poetry entitled "Smoke From the Altar". The winners of the Trivia Game will win Louis L'Amour books.

This week's Trivia Question is also about a native North Dakotan. Call Lois Lane at EXT. 227 if you can guess who THIS person is: 1. This African-American lady became the International Editor of EBONY Magazine. 2. She grew up in North Dakota in the Driscoll area where she attended school. 3. She also wrote several books, including "American Daughters" which tells the story of her youth in North Dakota.

WHO IS THIS LADY? Call now! If you don't know, do some research! Our library and librarian are wonderful sources of information! The winner gets a 6-pack of Coke.
