TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA! TRIVIA!

Last week's Trivia Contest was won by BRIAN PALECEK, a member of the faculty, who knew that ERA BELL THOMPSON was the lady from North Dakota who became the international editor of Ebony Magazine; besides her accomplishments as a noted journalist and author, Ms. Thompson distinguished herself early in life. At UND, where she attended college in North Dakota, she established five state women's track records and tied two national intercollegiate women's track records. She went on to graduate from Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa. Before her death, Ms. Thompson was a much-respected international editor of Johnson Publishing Company in Chicago. Besides her book about her youth in North Dakota (entitled "American Daughters"), she was also the author of "Africa, Land of My Father" and "White on Black".

This week's Trivia Question is also about a famous North Dakotan. Since ALMOST EVERYONE on campus will know this answer, Lois Lane will take Caller Number One ONLY on THIS one: WITHIN THIS PAST WEEK, CONGRESS PASSED LEGISLATION GRANTING A SMALL TOWN IN NORTH DAKOTA FUNDS TO RE-BUILD THE HOME OF WHAT FAMOUS NORTH DAKOTAN?

Come on, now.....EVERYONE KNOWS THIS ONE! Call Lois Lane at EXT. 227 for your 6-pack of Coke!

"IN THE NEWSLETTER SPOTLIGHT"

The "IN THE NEWSLETTER SPOTLIGHT" column has been featuring the staff of the Transportation are of UTTC.

This week's column puts ANN BARTOLE into the "Spotlight". Ann has worked at Transportation for almost twelve years--consecutively. People who know Ann know that she's a lady who really enjoys her job--she loves to drive---and she has always taken a special interest in the students attending the college and the elementary school. She loves visiting with them. People who know Ann also know that she has a very soft spot in her heart for animals.... just ask her about "Baby" sometime!

Ann's husband Larry has worked at the North Dakota State Penitentiary for the past fourteen years. They have three children: Michael, Tony, and LeAnn.

Anybody who thinks the people who work at Transportation just drive around all day should go over there when they're "tearing down" an engine or working on a transmission; and, there's Ann....right in the middle of the work....just like the guys! One appreciative co-worker and friend of Ann says, "Ann Bartole is one of the unsung heroes here at UTTC!"
