HELP!!! Theodore Jamerson Elementary School staff and students are putting a float together to represent UTTC on Friday, November 30, 1990 at the DOWNTOWNERS' CHRISTMAS PARADE in Bismarck.

If there are people OUT THERE who are willing to help decorate or set up/take down a float, etc., we'd really appreciate it!

Sioux Sporting Goods is sponsoring the float, and they have supplied us with materials. We just need labor, one set of flood lights, 5-10 children, and flash-lights. Gary Huber has offered us space to decorate (Thanks, Gary!)

If you can help out at all, PLEASE CALL GLENNA AT EXT. 304-305.

The winner of the Medical Records Raffle of 25 Gallons of Gas was DONNA VALLARANO, a commercial art instructor at Bismarck State College in the Voc-Tech Department.

The winner was announced on November 21 at the Thanksgiving Dinner/Graduation Reception at the end of last quarter.

And SPEAKING OF WINNERS, when United Tribes Technical College had its Fall Festival and Parade, the winners of the Float Contest were as follows: First Prize was won by AUTOMOTIVE ($75.00 cash prize); Second Prize was won by CRIMINAL JUSTICE ($50.00 cash prize); and Third Prize was won by BUSINESS CLERICAL ($25.00 cash prize). In case you'd forgotten, the UTTC FOOTBALL TEAM WON THE GAME TOO!!!

THERE WILL BE NO TRIVIA GAME THIS WEEK. TRIVIA WILL RESUME IN NEXT WEEK'S ISSUE OF THE NEWSLETTER.
