G.E.D. CLASSES for all UTTC students who need to get their G.E.D. are held every Tuesday and Thursday, morning and afternoon in the English area of the Education Building Downstairs. Study modules are also in the Computer Area. Please contact Mary Lemcke at EXT. 227 to set up a time for working on the material required to prepare for the G.E.D.

The tests for the G.E.D. are given at the Adult Education Resource Center at 210 West Bowen in Bismarck. The schedule for testing at the Adult Education Resource Center is: Wednesdays, 9:00 AM - 1:00 PM Thursdays, 6:00 PM - 10:00 PM Fridays, 1:00 PM - 5:00 PM

You must make an appointment to take the tests in Bismarck. Mary can set up the appointment for you, or you can call: Edi Thomas, GED Examiner, 224-5510.

If you need to get your G.E.D., make arrangements NOW to schedule time during the week (If Tuesdays and Thursdays don't work for you, we can make other arrangements) to prepare for your G.E.D. testing.

From February 15 until March 4, 1991, children from Theodore Jamerson Elementary School have been participating in the "In Celebration of Reading" program, sponsored by Chapter I and Reading Is Fundamental. The purpose of this program was to encourage your child/children to READ FOR FUN. Each child had to meet the requirement for his/her age group and will receive a certificate of achievement. In a random drawing at TJES, JoElla Many Bears' name was selected to be the one sent to RIF headquarters in Washington, D.C., where her name will be entered in the national drawing to choose the "1991 National RIF Reader".

The National RIF Reader will win a trip to Washington, D.C. with her parents and the RIF coordination.

"GOOD LUCK, JOELLA!"
