HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY !

IN COMMEMORATION OF "SWEETHEARTS' DAY, THE NEWSLETTER PRESENTS THESE TWO POEMS BY A VERY PROMISING YOUNG POET. THANK YOU TO THAT POET FOR HER BEAUTIFUL WORK!

Our Love

Before you leave, I need you to understand

What your love has been to me

Your love

has given me strength for us both to face a time of hurt, not knowing what the future holds for us alone

Your love

is the courage I hold in my heart to prepare to let you go when you know how much I love you so

Your love

is the memories I will not forget from the day we first met to the time where we now stand so please take my hand

Your love has touched my soul

FOR YOU

We had our dreams in our hands now that you are gone

My world seems to have fallen apart with a big empty hole in my heart

I know this is the way it has to be maybe someday you will know

When you see the emptiness in me that I never wanted you to go

Nothing will ever change the feelings I have inside sometimes that will be hard for me to hide

What ever the future holds for you remember always, my love for you was true

Before embarking on the Buffalo Tour, promoter Jim Swan needs a logo — he's offering cash to the Native American artist who comes up with the winning entry.

The 1992-93 rock 'n' roll and cultural tour is designed to raise money to restock buffalo herds on Indian reservations across the country.

Swan and the Native American Cultural Institute of Montana are sponsoring and promoting the logo contest. Swan, of Mill Valley, Calif., put up $500 prize money for the top two entries. All artwork must be done by American Indians, which is consistent with the mission statement of the Buffalo Tour and NACI, said Susan DeCamp, the organization's vice president.

"In addition to the logo, we're interested in other works of art that could be used in posters, bumper stickers and other promotional purposes on the tour," Swan said. "People may have items in quantity we can buy; others may have single art pieces."

The tour is scheduled for West Coast stops this summer, but may have a warm-up show in Europe this spring, Swan said.

Artists' entries, along with their complete name, address, telephone or contact number and tribal affiliation, are due by March 1.

The only acceptable entry is a non-returnable copy of the original artwork, a slide of the artwork or a high-quality print of the artwork.

Send entries to NACI Buffalo Tour Contest, P.O. Box 20412, Billings, Mont. 59104. For more information, call DeCamp at 406-657-2200.

Eagle Poem

To pray you open your whole self
To sky, to earth, to sun, to moon
To one whole voice that is you.
And know there is more
That you can't see, can't hear Can't know except in moments Steadily growing, and in languages That aren't always sound but other Circles of motion.
Like eagle that Sunday morning Over Salt River. Cirled in blue sky
In wind, swept our hearts clean With sacred wings.
We see you, see ourselves and know That we must take the utmost care
And kindness in all things.
Breathe in, knowing we are made of All this, and breathe, knowing We are truly blessed because we Were born, and die soon, within a True circle of motion,
Like eagle rounding out the morning Inside us.
We pray that it will be done
In beauty.
In beauty.
