

U.T.T.C. Staff/Student NEWSLETTER

VOL. 14. NO. 20.

DATE: FEBRUARY 17, 1992

CONGRATULATIONS, UTTC GRADUATES!

The following poem is dedicated to you, Graduates!

The time for graduating is here
Look back to memories you have made Let the good ones erase any fears for a future that has been laid

Remember what you have learned know that you have made a start use the abilities you have earned Look inside and search your heart to find the strength you will need - to succeed

Maybe someday we will meet again we will have our goals achieved our attempts will not have been in vain
We cannot say good-bye for now

L. Melbourne

The Graduation Ceremony will be held at 1:00 P.m. at the James Henry Building,

This week's Trivia Question is about basketball's recent 100-year anniversary and the stamp that the U.S. Postal Service printed to celebrate that anniversary. THERE WAS A LITTLE SOMETHING WRONG WITH THAT STAMP THAT A BASKETBALL PLAYER WOULD PICK UP! If you know what was a "little off" about the picture, call LOIS LANE AT EXT. 227. (The Postal System was criticized for printing a stamp with this basketball foible!)
