

HALLOWEEN WEEK

By Evelyn Chaske
Martha Frederick

A most unusual week for staff and students took place from October 24 through 27. Everyone seemed to enjoy the week very much, and we hope there can be similar activities in the future.

Tuesday was Hat Day - Those who didn't wear hats or have outfits during the rest of the week were fined 25¢ per day. Karla Starr and Roxanne Wilkie made paper hats for several students. In addition to paper hats, there were straw hats, cowboy hats, Mexican hats, Billy Jack hats, show-caps and stocking caps.

Wednesday was Western Day - Most students and staff wore levis, boots, hats, vests, long dresses or western shirts and jackets.

Thursday was Indian Day - Those who dressed up wore medallions, fringed vests, beaded moccasins, belts, bracelets, headbands, and feathers.

Also on Thursday at 3:00, a slave auction was held. Student government officers and representatives were sold to the highest bidders. Everyone enjoyed the humor of the auctioneer, LaVern Golus, and those who did the bidding.

Friday was Weirdo Day - All sorts of weird outfits were seen on this day. We thought Bruce Senger, the Librarian, was dressed the most weird. He wore a black derby hat, a green suit jacket that was too small and a pot belly, and gray knickerbockers with white knee-high socks.

Friday evening a dance was held at the school gym. The Savages from South Dakota played. Everyone seemed to have a good time.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS GET-TOGETHER

by Vickie Walette

U.T.E.T.C. children are attending Richolt and Saxvik Elementary Schools, Wachter and Simle Junior Highs, and Bismarck High School. Most of the children are in the Elementary grades.

On October 18, 1972 a Coffee Hour was held by Mrs. Ann Kuyper for the parents and teachers to get-together to talk about how their children are doing in school and to get to know each other. There was a 100% turn out of both parents and teachers. Mrs. Kuyper said "What I had hoped for was a comfortable, informal setting here on Center where the parents could meet the Bismarck Teachers, for the greater good of the children, and that's the way it turned out."

There was a few decorations up, some flowers for a centerpiece, but mostly just Indian Music in the background and lots of visiting.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
Recruitment & Institutional Relations
Los Angeles, CA 90024

September 1, 1972

Dear Editor:

UCLA has initiated a new recruiting program for Fall 1973 in order to increase our contacts with native Americans. The American Indian Studies Center, working in close cooperation with the Department of Recruitment and Institutional Relations, is anxious to expand UCLA's enrollments of qualified native American students. However, since many students live outside the greater Los Angeles area, we are unable to contact them directly. It is this effort that we are asking you to support.

UCLA is rated among one of the top ranking universities in the United States. It has achieved scholastic excellence without losing sight of ethnic contributions, as demonstrated by the American Indian, Asian American, Latin American, Chicano, Near Eastern and African Studies Centers.

In order to help financially needy students, UCLA has an extensive Undergraduate Recruitment and Development Program. URD offers financial, academic and counseling assistance for students who meet regular admission requirements or who have demonstrated the potential to succeed in the University. It also pays the out-of-state tuition, amounting to $1,500 a year, for native American students who qualify for the program.

To get a first-hand glimpse of UCLA, the Alumni Association is sponsoring a High School Day on October 23, 1972. Since it is a regular school day for the University, high school students will be able to attend classes, tour the campus, and see films. This is just one of the many activities that takes place at UCLA, and we encourage as many students as possible to participate. The American Indian Studies Center, located in Campbell Hall, Room 3221, will also be open for anyone who wants to meet our staff.

We ask that your newspaper or newsletter print an article about UCLA's native American recruitment and the October 23, High School Day. Both programs hope to reach out and draw more American Indian students to UCLA.

If you have any further questions, you may contact me at 825-7316 or Mr. John Gilbert in the Office of Recruitment and Institutional Relations at 825-0811.

Thank you for your interest and cooperation.

Yours truly,

S/ Anthony Purley

KEYAPI KOOKIN'

Fresh Corn Puffs

(Makes about 4 dozen)

- 4 ears fresh corn or 2 (10 oz.) packages frozen corn on the cob
- 3 cups shortening or oil for deep fat frying
- ½ cup flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon paprika
- 1/8 teaspoon fresh ground pepper
- 3 eggs, beaten until light

Husk the corn, remove silks, and scrape kernels and pulp from the cob, if you use frozen corn, thaw well before scraping. There should be about 1½ cups corn and pulp. Place shortening or oil in a large kettle, and begin to heat slowly. For deep-fat frying the temperature should be 350 F. Use a deep-fat thermometer to determine exact temperature. It will take 10 - 15 minutes for the fat to become hot enough for frying. Sift together the dry ingredients. Mix in the eggs and corn. Drop batter from a teaspoon into the hot oil. Fry the puffs until they are light and golden brown on all sides. Drain on paper toweling and serve.

Venison Mincemeat

(Makes 2 quarts)

- 1 quart apple cider
- 2 cups seedless raisins
- 1 cup dried cooked currants
- 3 greening apples, peeled, cored, and chopped
- 1 cup chopped suet
- 2 pounds ground venison
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- 2 teaspoons ginger
- 1 teaspoon cloves
- 1 teaspoon nutmeg
- ½ teaspoon allspice

Place the cider, raisins, currants, apples, and suet in a large, heavy kettle, cover, and simmer for 2 hours. Stir in remaining ingredients, and simmer, uncovered, for 2 hours, stirring occasionally. Use as pie filling.

SLAVE AUCTION

By Benita Cook

On Thursday, October 26, 1972 the Students Government held a slave auction at the gym. All representatives from all vocations were sold to students and staff. The purpose of the slave auction was to raise money for the Halloween party that was planned for that night.

Bidding started at 1¢ and ended up going to $8.50, with Jess Coffey being sold as the highest priced slave.

The students and staff who bought the slaves would have them the next day from 12:00 noon to 4:00 p.m. Some of the things the slaves did were:

Julie Blackmoon - cleaned up an office, straightened up desk and files.

Gilbert Red Dog - vacuumed out a car and put in interior.

Phylomine Wolfe - helped Duane Silk measure hallways and wrote measurements down.

Jim Bender - made two snowmen.

Nick Cadotte - put up curtains.

Violet Brave Heart - cleaned bookshelves, did paperwork and answered the phone.

LaVern Golus and Melva Iron - cleaned up Dorm 68.

Jess Coffey - did Folsom's schoolwork and swept Building Trades classroom.

Everybody had a wonderful time bidding, but it took a little time before everybody started to loosen up and really start bidding. We hope to plan more events like this in the future. The Student Government made $43.86 at the slave auction and thanks to everyone who helped make our slave auction a success.

A STATE OF MIND

If you think you're beaten, you are.
 If you think you dare not, you don't.
 If you'd like to win, but you think you can't,
 It's almost a cinch you won't.
 If you think you'll lose, you've lost,
 For out of the world you find
 Success begins with a fellow's will--
 It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you're outclassed, you are;
 You've got to think high to rise;
 You've got to be sure of yourself before
 You can ever win a prize.

For many a race is lost
 E're ever a step is run;
 And many a coward fails
 E're ever his work's begun.
 Think big and your deeds will grow;
 Think small and you'll fall behind;
 Think that you can and you will--
 It's all in the state of mind.

Life's battles don't always go
 To the stronger or faster man
 But soon or late, the man who wins
 Is the fellow who thinks he can.

SPORTS AND RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES

By LaVern Golus

In addition to our usual activities of old time movies, basketball, and volleyball practice, we had the following activities. There are bingo games held on Sunday nites every other week. The two big winners for the games were Vickie Bender (first Sunday nite) and Jess Coffey (second Sunday nite). We also had a student-staff Halloween party, which everyone enjoyed very much. There was also a Halloween party for the children. We have held dances on Friday nites, music was furnished by the students of U.T.E.T.C. These were the first dances held in a couple of months. On the nite of the first dance Chris and Violet Braveheart gave an exhibition to the song "Wipe Out." All the students at the dance liked it and gave the couple a standing ovation. We also held our Annual Football Toilet Bowl game between the students and staff. The Toilet Bowl queens were Thelma Stiffarm for staff and Carol Cadotte for students. The staff won the game by a score of 35 to 7. The students had three basketball games this month, and won 2 of them.

Next month, we hope to have ceramics & leatherwork more and the swimming pool will soon be open.

Several students attended the concert of the Carpenters at the Civic Center recently.
