Different smells for different purposes

Anne Heid has now completed her third weekend session in Boulder, Colorado on Aroma Therapy. Two sessions remain for completing certification. Ask her all about it.

Submitted by Sister Kathryn Zimmer,
Director, AASPN Program

From the English Department . . .

Study Tip: Never use it's unless you can substitute it is. Because they would rather be "safe than sorry", many writers mentally say it is every time they use it's.

Spot the Blooper: Sign at Bob's Big Boy restaurant in Monrovia, California: One side says, "There back!" The other side says, "Their back!: Which side is correct? Neither, of course. "They're" (They are) is correct.

Thought for the day . . .

- MON: • Whatever something costs now will be 25% cheaper on December 26th.
- TUE: • Where can you buy those little plastic ends that go on your shoelaces?
- WED: • The fact that nobody understands you doesn't mean you're an artist.
- THU: • Never get into fights with ugly people. They have nothing to lose.
- FRI: • Before they invented drawing boards, what did they go back to?
- SAT: • Whoever said small things are nothing to worry about has never slept with a mosquito in their room.
- SUN: • A woman has the last word in every argument - anything a man says after that is the beginning of a new argument.

NOVEMBER FEATURES

New York: A Documentary Film

TV There is no place in the world quite like New York. Its dark beauty and inimitable power have for generations stirred men and women—seeming the very embodiment of all ambition, all aspiration, all romance and all desire.

“More than any other place in America, New York is the city Americans love to love and love to hate,” says filmmaker Ric Burns, brother to the renowned Ken Burns.

New York: A Documentary Film traces New York’s remarkable rise from the arrival of the Dutch in the early 17th century to the present day. The landmark 10-hour series, a special presentation of The American Experience, premieres in five two-hour episodes across five nights: Sunday, November 14 through Thursday, November 18, at 8 p.m. (CT).

Five years in the making, the series weaves together a vibrant tapestry of visual material, both contemporary and archival, with the reflections of an extraordinary chorus of distinguished New York artists, writers, architects, politicians, actors, directors and historians.

Native American History Month

Jim Pepper performs on Pepper's Powwow

TV Prairie Public is airing a collection of programs in honor of Native American History Month. From Electronic Smoke Signals, which looks at Native American radio stations in South Dakota, to Thieves of Time, a history of Native American burial grounds through 500 years of cultural, scientific and legal change, to Denver March Powwow, a documentary of one of the largest and most prestigious American Indian Cultural Festivals, an array of programs explore the history and celebrate the lives of Native Americans throughout North America.

CHEMICAL HEALTH CENTER NATIONAL AMERICAN INDIAN HERITAGE MONTH NOVEMBER

The Chemical Health Center staff would like to invite you to an Open House in honor of National American Indian Heritage month on November 23, 1999 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. We will be having some grand door prizes for students and staff members, who are willing to take a pledge to promote our American Indian Heritage by teachings, language, culture, spirituality, and living a healthy drug free lifestyle.

We as American Indians must strive to regain and preserve our teachings, language, culture, and spirituality. This is a challenge that is before each and everyone of our people. We feel that our great-grand children deserve the survival of our language and traditions.

The United Nations Draft Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, 1993

Indigenous peoples have the right to revitalize, use, develop and transmit to future generations their histories, languages, oral traditions, philosophies, writing systems and literatures, and to designate and retain their own names for communities, places and persons.

Indigenous children have the right to all levels and forms of education of the State. All indigenous peoples also have the right to establish and control their educational systems and institutions providing education in their own languages, in a manner appropriate to their cultural methods of teaching and learning.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY SOLICITING HOLIDAY TREE ORNAMENTS

BISMARCK -- The holiday season is approaching, and the State Historical Society of North Dakota is seeking hand-made ornaments from North Dakotans for its annual holiday tree.

School children and members of civic and social clubs are especially encouraged to make an ornament or several ornaments for the tree. All ornaments submitted will be hung on the tree.

Displayed at the North Dakota Heritage Center in Bismarck, the tree will be on view beginning Wednesday, November 24 through January 3, 2000. It has always been decorated with ornaments hand-made by North Dakotans. This year's tree will be decorated with ornaments representing traditional, ethnic or historical themes.

The call for holiday tree ornaments is open to all North Dakotans, with only these guidelines:

- The ornaments must be handmade. No kits.
- All materials and techniques are acceptable. If the ornaments are made of material such as pasta, dough art or cookie dough, please thoroughly seal them.
- Each ornament should be ready to hang. Attach a hanger, ribbon or string.
- On the back of each ornament, write your name, town and "1999."
- All ornaments will become the property of the State Historical Society of North Dakota and will not be returned.
- All ornaments submitted will be hung on the tree.
- The deadline for receiving ornaments is Friday, November 19.

Those interested in submitting an ornament need to list their name, mailing address and any information about the ornament they want to include and send it with the ornament or ornaments to:

The North Dakota Heritage Center Holiday Tree
State Historical Society of North Dakota
612 East Boulevard Avenue, Bismarck, ND 58505.

Injury Prevention Program HIGHLIGHTS

On Wednesday, November 10, 1999 the Injury Prevention Program had an election of officers. Listed below are the elected officers.

- PRESIDENT: Peggy Morgan – Oglala Sioux, Pine Ridge, SD
- VICE PRESIDENT: Jodi Johnson – Fort Berthold Indian Reservation, Newtown, ND
- SECRETARY: Bridgett Derby – Standing Rock Sioux, Fort Yates, ND
- TREASURER: Kristi Begay – Crow, Crow Agency, MT

Congratulations to all the elected officers. We are looking forward to your great leadership, in promoting the Injury Prevention Program. This opportunity should prove to be very challenging in promoting Injury Prevention in Indian Country.

Sharon Clairmont – Rosebud Sioux Tribe

During the summer of 1999, Sharon attended the Washington Institute for Native Students (WINS), in Washington, DC. She was placed with the Agency for Health Care Policy and Research. Her task was to find funding within the Indian Health Services system for Domestic Violence victims/services.

Yvette Belgarde – Turtle Mountain Chippewa

Yvette was one of three tribal college students selected to speak at the 2nd Annual American Indian College Fund seminar held September 21, 1999, held at the Arvada Center in Denver, Colorado.

Ivan Brown Otter – Standing Rock Sioux Tribe

Ivan will attend a workshop entitled "Nutrition and Physical Activity" in Atlanta, GA on November 15 and 16. Ivan has been involved in research with diabetes in the Native American population.

Tamara Moore – Spirit Lake, Fort Totten, ND

Peggy Morgan – Oglala Sioux, Pine Ridge, SD

Sandi Summa – Ute Mountain, Towaoc, CO

Julie Cain – Advisor

Attended the Youth in Action Conference held in Reston, VA through the MADD Chapter Program, July 10-14. Topics were mainly on underage drinking and laws. There was a press conference held on underage drinking addressing the issues and prevention. Sandi Summa was on the Panel Board for Youth in Action. They are planning to set up a MADD chapter Program here at UTTC.
