United Tribes players listed on all-state teams

by John Behele

"Ladies and Gentlemen, good evening and welcome to the United Tribes THUNDERDOOOOME!! The Thunderbirds provided another exciting year of Basketball action for fans and classmates. Congratulations goes to the players, coaches and staff for lifting the spirits of classmates and fans throughout Indian Country. The Men's team finished the year one point shy of another trip to Nationals.

The North Dakota Junior College 2001 All State Team listed D.J. Two Bears and Anthony Quick Bear on the Men's Division roster and Kelli Quick Bear and Frankie Hawk Eagle on the Women's Division roster. The four players were also selected as Honorable Mention for the Mon-Dak All Conference Teams. In the Region XII, Women's Basketball Tournament, Kelli Quick Bear was named to the Division II, 2001 All-Tournament Team.

NCA self study countdown:

By Sister Kathryn Zimmer

The UTTC - NCA self study steering committee members have now reviewed the self study prepared for the NCA Evaluators who will be on campus the end of April 2001. John Beheler, one of the writers, pointed out the highlights of the study to the members at this last meeting on Wednesday, March 22, 2001.

Soon the study will come your way. Hopefully you will agree that it is complete, attractive and worthy of positive consideration by the Evaluators.

Thanks again to all who assisted in the process. Within the next weeks the Steering committee will be gathering exhibit materials that will give some greater detail to that which appears in the Self Study.

American Indian Tourism update

by Sandra A. Poitra, 2001 Host Tourism Co-Chair

Check out the National American Indian Tourism web site: www.Indiantourism.org. Mr. Butch Thunderhawk and Mr. John Beheler collaborated in the tourism logo design.

I am working with some of UTTC's faculty and administration in providing the conference participants credit in attending the 2001 Conference. Sheri Baker and her students will be assisting with the initial conference registration, evaluations, and some volunteer help.

April 10-12, 2001, Gloria Cobb, the National Tourism Co-Chair and myself, 2001 Host Tourism Co-Chair will be addressing the Great Plains Tribal/Federal Conference participants about the 2001 Tourism Conference. As the Co-Chairs for the conference, we will both be seeking financial support along with their physical participation in attending the tourism conference. The attendees of the Aberdeen Conference will include Tribal Members, Entrepreneurs, Tribal leaders, Tribal Planners, Tribal College Students and other interested individuals.

The next National Tourism meeting will be held on May 20 - 23, 2001. Location will be at South Radisson, Minneapolis, MN. This meeting will take place during the Great Plains Midwest Indian Gaming Conference and Expo. The American Indian/Alaskan Native Tourism Association will have a booth space to promote the 2001 Tourism Conference. All Tourism members are encouraged to attend.

If you would like more information, you may contact Sandra A. Poitra, 2001 Host Co-Chair at (701) 255-3285, ext. 331.

The Edward Moore Sr. Family
Mrs. Ella Moore
Bismarck, North Dakota

Dear Mrs. Moore, Members of the Family, Relatives & Friends:

On behalf of the Tribes of North Dakota and the United Tribes Technical College, we extend our heartfelt prayers and best wishes in the passing of Ed Moore, Sr. We know that he has been an excellent example of a good husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather.

As important, he has been a great friend, and an outstanding professional and an excellent role model in community service.

He was, of course, a past faculty member here at United Tribes Technical College (1971 – 1984) and we, along with our students and members of our staff and board, remember his good work here.

Please know that we share your loss, but also acknowledge and appreciate his contributions.

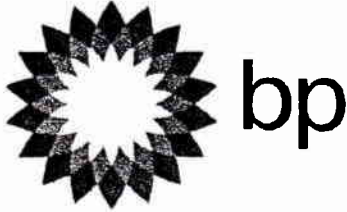

Mitakuye' Oyasin.
